HOUSE BILL No. 1130

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning public safety.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. IC 20-12-3.5-2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
2 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 2. (a) Police officers
3 appointed under this chapter have general police powers, including the 4 power to arrest, without process, all persons who within their view
5 commit any offense. They have the same common law and statutory 6 powers, privileges, and immunities as sheriffs and constables, except 7 that they are empowered to serve civil process only to the extent
8 authorized by the employing governing board. However, any powers 9 may be expressly forbidden them by the governing board of the 10 institution employing them. In addition to any other powers or duties, 11 ~~such~~ police officers appointed under this chapter have the duty to 12 enforce and to assist the officials of their institutions in the 13 enforcement of the rules and regulations of the institution and to assist 14 and cooperate with other law enforcement agencies and officers.
15 (b) ~~Such~~ Police officers appointed under this chapter may 16 exercise the powers granted under this section ~~only upon any real~~ 17 ~~property owned or occupied by their institutions, including the streets~~

1 passing through and adjacent thereto. Additional jurisdiction may be 2 established by agreement with the chief of police of the municipality
3 or sheriff of the county or the appropriate law enforcement agency
4 where the property is located, dependent upon the jurisdiction
5 involved: in any part of Indiana.

6 (c) When an eligible police officer retires after at least twenty (20)
7 years of service, the police officer may retain the officer's service
8 weapon. The officer is entitled to receive, in recognition of the service 9 to the department and the public, a badge that indicates that the officer
10 is retired. Upon retirement, the department shall issue to the police 11 officer an identification card that states the police officer's name and 12 rank at retirement, states the officer's retired status, and notes the 13 officer's authority to retain the service weapon. A police officer 14 described in this subsection is entitled to a lifetime license to carry a 15 handgun under IC 35-47-2-3(e).
